

GLOBAL FINANCIAL PRIVATE CAPITAL
Job Description

JOB TITLE: Product Owner

Reports To: Product and Platform Development
Prepared by: Global Financial Private Capital

Exempt
Jan 23, 2017

SUMMARY:

The Product Development team is seeking a Product Owner to play a key role in the development and implementation of Global Financials product and technology solutions. The Product Owner partnering with subject matter experts will be expected to deliver key product and platform enhancements for our expanding client base. As a Product Owner, you will assist in creating, driving, and executing to product and platform strategy in an ever-changing industry landscape.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assigned activities across platform development, product development, project management, competitive intelligence and operational processes.
- Partner closely with Investments, Sales, Operations and other groups for discovery of opportunities as well as implementation.
- Communicate and present initiatives broadly across our organization, at both senior and staff levels.
- Contribute and lead information gathering sessions related to product and platform development opportunities.
- Help to promote continuous learning and development around industry trends and competitive intelligence.
- Communicate, influence and negotiate critical decision making issues related to initiatives.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES: This job has no direct supervisory responsibilities.

COMPETENCIES:

To perform the job successfully, an individual should demonstrate the following competencies:

- 4+ years of platform and product development industry experience.
- Platform and Product Development experience in an Investment Management firm, Third-Party Asset Manager or Mutual Fund environment is a plus.
- Strong analytical skills including the ability to analyze metrics.
- Excellent verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills.
- Strategic planning and development experience a plus.
- Ability to evaluate risk and the impact of decisions on an overall organization.
- Demonstrated experience in influencing decision-making and successfully negotiate critical issue resolution related to platform and product development initiatives.

- Ability to work effectively in a virtual environment where key team members and partners are in various time zones and locations.
- Intermediate Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint and Visio) skills.
- Demonstrated success in directly facilitating cross-functional teams; Ability to interface with all functional areas of our company, including Sales, Investments, Finance, Legal, Compliance, Marketing, Operations, etc.
- Demonstrated project management experience is a must.

QUALIFICATIONS:

EXPERIENCE:

- 4+ years of relevant industry experience.

Preferred Skills:

- Direct Product, Platform Development and Project Management experience.

EDUCATION AND/OR EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's degree (B.A.) required, additional project or product certifications are a plus